What's Next?

What are the passions that drive you and your colleagues? What are the lasting impacts you aspire to create? To capitalize on emerging opportunities in the dynamic business landscape, it's essential to take an active role in shaping your team's skills and enhancing your collective expertise.

To ensure continuous growth, innovation, leadership, and success for yourself, your team, and your organization, it is crucial to pursue relevant training and certifications. New Horizons offers a wide range of technology and professional development courses that can equip you and your team with the necessary skills and knowledge to achieve outstanding performance. By addressing skill gaps and investing in staff development, you can stay ahead of the curve and be prepared for what lies ahead.

Together, let's build a robust foundation for team development and lasting growth to unlock the full potential of you and your organization and to prepare you for what's next.

ADDRESS CRITICAL NEEDS

What Do You Need To Learn?

Keep Up with the Latest Technology

Our comprehensive training program offers a vast array of more than 1,700 courses designed to address the critical learning needs of your workforce. We cater to both the professional development needs of your employees and the strategic goals of your organization, empowering you to stay ahead of the curve and leverage the latest technologies to enhance your competitive edge.

Certifications

Certifications are becoming increasingly more important for individuals to stand out, and organizations to validate expertise and retain top talent. As an authorized partner, we can create a pathway for the professional certification of your choosing from any of our vendor partners.

REAL-WORLD EXPERIENCE

Learn From Our Experts

Trusted and Authorized Content

Learning with authorized content and exceptional instruction will help you reach new levels and attain your goals. As an authorized partner for leading technology and software companies like Amazon Web Services (AWS), Cisco, Citrix, CompTIA, IBM, Microsoft, Red Hat, and VMware, we are your one-stop-shop for all your authorized training and certification needs.

World-Class Instructors

Our instructors are certified by our vendor partners in the technologies that they teach. With real-world experience, a passion for sharing their knowledge in a comprehensive, energetic, and enthusiastic manner, rest assured that you are being guided by experts who truly know what they are talking about and want to help develop leaders.

ULTIMATE FLEXIBILITY

Learn Where You Want

Life-Long Learning

Your learning should be impactful, applicable, and lasting. As part of our integrated learning model, we provide resources so that you learn before, during, and after the course. Participants receive tools such as pre-work, official curriculum, hands-on labs, reference materials, exam preparation guides, practice exams, and free retakes (where applicable) at no additional cost.

Global Network

Whether your workforce is distributed in one location or across the globe, we offer comprehensive training solutions to meet your needs. Our network has a global presence that spans multiple countries, and we embrace diverse cultures and languages to deliver training where you want to learn: at any of our franchise locations, at your site, online, or at a third-party facility.

FIT FOR YOUR NEEDS

Learn The Way You Want

Customized Training Solutions

Training can be customized and flexible to fit your unique requirements. We provide private group training with tailored content and delivery for what works best for you. We can train as many or as few employees as you need, from a single team or department to your entire organization. Our expert instructors bring a wealth of knowledge and practical insights, ensuring that your team receives the highest quality education.

Flexible Delivery Methods

We know you have unique constraints and learning styles to accommodate. That is why we offer live online, in-person, OnDemand, custom and dedicated events along with a large “guaranteed to run” open enrollment schedule, and a GSA schedule for ultimate flexibility. You can participate the way you want, when you want, and where you want.

COST-EFFECTIVE INVESTMENT

Learn At A Price That Works For You

Competitive Pricing

High-quality training that is cost-effective and offers maximum return on investment is important. Enjoy the flexibility and value of our pre-paid learning credits which are ready to use when you need them and ensure you never lose your budget at year-end. New Horizons is an authorized partner, and we can accept vendor credits that you receive with your licensing purchase. Take advantage of our government pricing, or volume discounts to help stretch your budget even further. Our goal is to ensure that you can embark on your learning journey without compromising on the quality and depth of education you receive.
